

Law of Attraction for Artists

You were born to create!

If you were waiting for permission to follow your heart's desire, you now have it! You were born to create and live a joy-filled life. The Universe wants you to create! You were born to create with ink, paint, clay, metal, wood, film, movement – whatever medium your heart desires. They all exist for you to breathe your spirit into them and call forth the art of your dreams. You were also born to create your life experience...

You create with your thoughts & you attract what you think about

Are you consciously “painting” the life you want to live? Your thoughts are your creative power and draw to you things that match the energy of your most dominate thinking. When you notice yourself feeling anything less than good, stop for a moment and recognize that the thoughts you're thinking are attracting something you don't want. Let these thoughts go and paint new and better thoughts. See yourself creating easily and joyously. Affirm that new ideas flow to you like a mighty river. Envision the world wanting an abundance of what only you have to give. Doesn't it feel delicious?

Your emotions are your guidance system

How do you know if you're attracting your dreams? Check in with how you feel. Good-feeling thoughts are attracting your heart's desire. Bad-feeling thoughts are attracting things you don't want. When you catch yourself thinking negatively simply turn your attention to thoughts of what you do want. Focus on the having of whatever it is you want, and not on the lack of it or the wanting. For example say to yourself, “I see myself creating effortlessly and joyously. I see myself easily and consistently earning $_____ a year from my creative work. I am now enjoying the freedom to create the work I was born to do.”

There is no limit to what you can create

What do you want more of in your life? Ideas? Time? Recognition? Sales? Love? Joy? Fulfillment? If money were no object, what would you do? Reach for your wildest dreams! Know that it is as easy for the Universe to create all the art in the Louvre and all the symphonies ever played as it is for the Universe to manifest one small sketch or sonata. Dream big. What would your ideal day, week or year look like? What would you be doing? Where would you be doing it? How does it feel? If you could image ten times better than this, what would that look like?

Your life is meant to get better all the time

Your purpose is joy. Express gratitude and give thanks for every blessing. When you are appreciative, you vibrate positive energy that attracts more of the things and experiences you want. When you're grateful for something, no matter how small it is, you activate the law of attraction, drawing even more of what you want – and deserve, into your life. Give thanks, every morning and every night, that your life gets better every day, in every way... and it will!

You are a creator, and the universe is supporting you in creating whatever you choose

What is your intention for this moment? This day? Your art? The piece you're working on? Your gallery showing or book signing? Use the power of intention in every area of your life to set the wheels in motion. Declare your intention, then look for the resources and synchronicities to arrive. Don't worry about the “how.” The Universe handles the methods and other details, opening the pathways for you. The Universe is here to support you. The Universe wants what you want!

How exciting is that?
